

A Sunday World Feature. Col. F. K. Hain on the World's Fair and Rapid Transit in Chicago. SUNDAY WORLD

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, JULY 7, 1893

PRICE ONE CENT.

Saturday and Sunday --- World's House and Home Days.

EIGHT PAGES.

CLEVELAND BETTER.

His Lame Left Leg Makes Him Walk Slowly.

Bluefish Arrive and May Hasten

Lamont Smiles and Buzzard's Bay Weather Is Also Pleasant.

sident Cleveland is better this morning. At 3 o'clock he was sitting on the veranda with his guests and Mrs. Cleveland. His left leg is still quite veranda with his guests and Mrs. Cleveland. His left leg is still quite lame, and the President walks rather slowly.

A school of bluefish arrived in the bay a few miles from Gray Gables, and any one who can hold a line can catch them. One man caught sixty beauties in two hours this morning.

was reported at Gray Gables this morning and caused a little excitement. Secand it is possible that the President may country are pouring in here inquiring after the President's health.

THE HENLEY REGATTA.

the Prises Awarded,

LONDON, July 7.—This was the last day of the Henley Begatta. The final rounds in the different events were rowed, and the prises awarded to the successful competitors. The weather was sunshiny and hot.

In the final round for the Stewards' Cup the crew of the Magdalen College Rowing Club beat the crew of the Thames Rowing Club by a length and a quarter.

For the Thames Cup crews of the Thames and the Eton Excelsior clus were matched. The former won.

For the Grand Challenge Cup the crew of the Leander Rowing Club beat the London Rowing Club's crew a length and three-quarters.

G. B. Kennedy, of the Kingston Row—

The Mayor Boody i certainly would do so.

"But." he added significantly, "if I were Mayor Boody about the was not his piace to do so.

"But." he added significantly, "if I were Mayor Boody certainly would do so."

Burden Grant Challenge Cup the Court of Sessions until after 11 oclosk this morning, and no application of any such nake such an application and clear his character.

For the Grand Challenge Cup the crew of the Leander Rowing Club beat the London Rowing Club's crew a length and three-quarters.

G. B. Kennedy, of the Kingston Row—

Then he changed his mind apd thought he would not. The lieuth and he said to dee the publication of the ovidence, sail was not his piace to do so.

"But." he added significantly, "if I were Mayor Boody I certainly would do so."

Bayor Boody I certainly would do so."

Bayor Boody I certainly would do so."

The Mayor Boody I certainly would do so."

Bayor Boody I certainly was asked in he proposed to glean his stirte of the mould not have sail was not his piace to do so.

"But." he added significantly, "if I were Mayor Boody I certainly was not his piace to do so.

"But." he added significantly, "if I were Mayor Boody I certainly was not he sair the ovidence, sail was not his piace to do so.

"But." he added significantly, "if I were Mayor Boody I certainly would do so."

The Mayor Boody I certainly was not he sair the ovidence, sail was not his p G. B. Kennedy, of the Kingston Rowing Club, and F. Biddington, of the Thames Rowing Club, were matched against each other in the final round for the Diamond Sculls. Kennedy won the race as he pleased.

In the second heat Guy Nickalls, of Magdalen College, easily defeated W. M. Boyd, of Trinity College, Dublin.

CARAVELS ARRIVE AT THE FAIR.

Welcomed by Many Spectators and with a Speech by John Sherman.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, July 7 .-The arrival of the Spanish caravels at Jackson Park to-day was a source of great interest to the visitors, and was the cause of attracting an unusually large attendance at the Fair.

The weather was perfect, and hours before the most sanguine could 'reasonably have expected the caravels to arrive the vantage points on the piers and beach were crowded with spectators waiting to welcome the strange visitors. waiting to welcome the strange visitors.
When the caravels and their crews
I ally appeared, they were greeted with usty cheers and the blowing of whistles and the ringing of all the bells at the Fair.

The formal exercises took place at the stand east of the Transportation Building. Benator John Sherman delivered the address of welcome; Capt. Concar responded briefly, and Secretary of the Navy Herbert and others also made brief addresses.

ANOTHER TROLLEY INJUNCTION. Asbury Park and Belmar Company Must Stop Work.

TRENTON, N. J., July 7 .- Chancello McGill has granted a rule against the Asbury Park and Belmar Street Railway Company, in the suit of the Avonby-the-Sea Land and Improvement Com-

The rule is made returnable July 18, when the Railroad Company must show cause why an injunction should not be issued against them, restraining them from constructing an electric road between Asbury Park and Belmar.

Accompanying the rule is a temporary order, restraining the Company from going on with the work until the matter shall have been decided.

Revenue Fraude in Tobacco PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—A special agent of the Treasury Department yesterday seized acarly 1,800 pounds of tobacco which had fraudulently passed by the Custom-House at Ogdensburg, N. Y., as fillers, when it was the fillest Sumaira leaf, used only as wrappers. It is said that the losses of revenue to the soverment by these Canadian importations, overing a number of years, will smount to over $1,000,000. TREEZ are no flies on me, because I use Fly lone.

Grand Jury Minutes.

Then States that the Mayor's Appli- Men from Three States at Bardwell, cation Will Be Considered.

spent in receiving half a dozen deputations given out by his subordinates for falling to meet, as he said he would, the charge of the Brooklyn Grand Jury that he ought to be indicted, and that he would have been but for District Attorney Ridgway's interpreta-

Up to the noon hour no statement of any secretary said that none would be made

The thirteen members of the Board of Al-bound to respect.

They nave seen the city treasury plundered and valuable franchises given away almost for the mere asking when fival companies were willing and anxious to pay big premiums for them.

They have seen the politicians growing fat on the fruits and "toils" of office without very much grumbling. But they at least considered that justice would be administered fairly and criminals prosecuted.

Now comes forward District-attorney higgeway, who declares practically that the Grand Jury room is anything but a sacred place.

He insists that the law compels him to be Then he lays down the law that that body perjured.

He said he would ask Judge Moore, of the Court of Sensions, to order the minutes of the evidence published.

Then he changed his mind and thought he changed his mind and thought he

The reporters then hurried over in a body so the Mayor's office, and that official was intermed of the facts of the case. He at once faid that he would do it.

When pressed to state when such an application would be made he declined to say anything save that he would lose as little time as possible in doing so.

ESCAPED IN THE CROWD.

Aged William H. Howard Didn't

Want to Go to a Home. William F. Forshay, a cigar manu-facturer, of Spring Valley, Rock-land County, New York, came to Police Headquarters this morning and had an alarm sent out for William H. Howard, seventy-two years old, who is miss Howard was formerly in Mr. Fo shay's employ as bookkeeper, and had been an inmate of St. Vincent's Hospital for the last two weeks.

Mr. Forshay took him out of the hospital yesterday, intending to place him in a home at St. Johnland, L. I. They hadn't gone more than a few blocks when Howard disappeared in the crowd and escaped. and escaped.

Howard has gray hair, and is partly bald. He is slim, 5 feet 10 inches tall and wore a dark frock coat, dark vest and trousers, black soft hat, white shirt collar, but no tle.

He returned to St. Vincent's Hospital this afternoon.

MANHATTAN WANTS MORE:TIME.

__ Starin, of the Rapid Transit Commission, Pavors Granting It. time to consider the propositions of the Rapid

Secretary of the Commission, John H. Inman, one of the Rapid Transit Commissioners said this afternoon that he was in favor of granting such a request. The Company will probably to heard from

CLEARING-HOUSE CERTIFICATES.

The Clearing-House Loan Committee to-day issued $500,000 additional certifi-cates. None were retired. The total amount of certificates now outstanding is $22,515,000.

Veteran of the Kearsarge Dead. NEWBURYPORT, Mass., July 7 .- Capt George White Remick, one of the naval heroes of the civil war, who served on the Kearsarge during her engacement with the Alabama, died here to-day, aged severity-two years.

But He Says He Will Ask for the Awful Fate to Which Negro Then Conners Attempted to Pull Murderer Miller Is Going.

exciting day that has ever been seen in the history of this peaceful little town. All the trains of last night and this morning have brought in crowds from neighboring towns in lous to take part in the lynching of Charles sisters, who was captured at Sikeston, Mo., on Broadway.

his favorite dish, and a favorite pastime with on the Cortland street side and him was to eat a cat and awallow bits of standing in front of the window imp chimneys, and dirt and clay. He could nearest Broadway, one of five which were drink four or five gelions of water without lilled with timepleces left for repairs, smanher

BLACK FIENDS IN ILLINOIS.

They Asseult a Young White Girl and a Lynching Is Expected.

PEORIA, Ill., July 7.-Miss Smith, sixteen yesterday afternoon, and when in a lonely spot was grabbed by two negroes, who bound gagged and assaulted her.

The cords which bound her were afterway set on fire, terribly burning her arms and

ONE MURDERER CONFESSES.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 7 .- David Cavender the wealthy farmer who murdered R. H. Reed Tuesday last, was arrested yes erday in a vacant room where he was hiding. He acknowledged his crime and the Coroner's jury found him guilty, implicating James

A telephone message says that Irwin was shot and killed resterday by Read's brother hear their home in North Georgia. Heed was held by two other farmers while Cavender cut his throat, the murder occur-ring in the suburbs of this city.

BROKER SMITH INJURED.

Loses Two Fingers by an Acciden on His Naphsha Launch.

YONKERS, N. Y., July 7.—George condit Smith, a Wall street broker, while cruising in his naphtha launch on crushed in the machinery. He came to Yonkers early this morning, and had two fingers amputated at St. John's Hos-

After landing from his boat he started o walk along the railroad track to Yonkers, but became confused and walked Judge Brown's Engagement to Miss When he reached Kingsbridge he was nearly exhausted. There he got aboard a train for Yonkers. After the operation was performed he went to his home.

HELD UP ON AN "L" STATION. Sailor Hunt Charged with Robbing James W. Munday.

James W. Munday, an insurance man, street, South Brooklyn, claims that while on the Elevated station at Chathan An important meeting of the Manhatian Extension Committee was held this afternoon at the office of Drexel, Morgan & Co. at which it was accided to ask for further time to consider the propositions of the Rapid Transit Commission.

A request to this effect will be sent to the Secretary of the Commission, John

Is Edward Baker Missing? YONKERS, N. Y., July 7 .- The body of a River this morning, off the Piow Works dock. Papers found in the ciothing indicate that ne was Edward Baker, of Futton, N. Y. There were no marks of violence on the body.

Ex-Gov, Wetmore Improving. came to this city to have a surgical operation performed at the Hotel Savoy, is daily gain-ing streng h and expects soon to be able to return home.

If You Are Sick,

BOODY ISN'T READY. TO DIE AT THE STAKE. SMASHED A WINDOW.

Out a Watch.

District-Attorney Ridgway Consults Father of the Dead Ray Girls Asks Daring Attempt at Robbery at Broadway and Cortlandt Street.

man Held On to the Time-Piece.

valuable watch.

trick appears to be contagious, as this was the second attempt of the kind within a week

The audacious act of the more of passers-by.

He approached Benedict

amp chimneys, and dirt and clay. He could drink four or five gelions of water without winking his eyes.

At 7.50 A. M. a telegram from Wickliffee, a small town eight miles north of nere, stated that the posse of men had reached there from skieston with the prisoner, who was pleading for meroy.

At 8. M. the crowd around the depot here was increasing every minute, and W. R. Parker, of Fulton, Ky., was making them an earnest speech, advising the people to de everything in an orderly way.

Mr. Ray, father of the murdered gire, has requested that they sllow him to light the pile of wood, which will burn the flend to a crisp. This is what it is now thought will be done with the wretch.

At 8.30 A. M. Prof. J. M. Speight, of Clifton, addressed the mob of citizens, who seem persectly cool.

Speight begged them to do everything in an orderly way, and not as a matter of show but as a matter of necessity.

This is a prohibition town and no whiskey of the crowd. Men are here from any any of the crowd. Men are here from every town in this part of the State.

Bl ACK TIFMING IN ILLIHOUS.

ings.

The affair created wild excitement in the seighborhood, and pedestrians were amaze at the boldmess of the thier, who selected time when the streets were crowded, an

GRABBED A WATCH AND RAN. William Burns Must Stand Trial for

Robbing Morris Levison. William Burns, twenty-one years old was held in $300 in the Tombs Police Burns visited the jewelry store of Levinson, at 8 Bowery, last night, and asked to see some cheap watches. The proprietor's son waited on him, and showed him a tray of silver

A TABLET MARKS THE SPOT.

gons of the Revolution Place Memorial On City Hall.

76. "Erested by the Sons of the Revolu tion."

Gen. Daniel Butterfield, representing the Sons of the Revolution, obtained permission to erect the tablet about two months ago. It will be formally dedicated with appropriate exercises to commemorate the 117th anniversary of the second control of the secon engagement of Judge Addisc Court, to Miss Heien C. Gaskin, has caused no end of surprise in the Federal Building. The cards were received yesterday for the wedding, which is to take place on July 20 at All Souls' Church, Twentieth street and Fourth avenue. Judge Brown has been out of town since last Monday, but returned to the city to-day, when he was overwhelmed with congratulations. He is a widower of seven years, but has no children.

AGED JURIST TO WED.

The distinguished jurist is sixty years of age, but has no gray hair, and might easily be taken for a man of fifty.

The Judge will take a vacation from July 1 to October 3. He will spend the time abroad with his wife. Court, to Miss Helen C. Gaskin, has

SMALL RIOT IN OAKLAND. itizens Boost the Southern Pacis

Out of a Perry Monopoly. SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.-There wa riot in Oakland last night which he sulted in the removal of fences, a ticket office and a short line of track belonging to the Southern Pacific Com-

IS HISTORY REPEATING ITSELF?

Ghost of Tweed—The situation over in Brooklyn looks very familiar to me.

STEAMSHIP MEN ANGRY.

crease of Bates for Treating Im migrants with Contagious Diseases Steamship men downtown to-day were ioner offmmigration Senner, advancing the rates for the treatment of passes gers affected with contagious disease from 62 cents to from $1 to $2 per day Here is the circular:

"Ellis Island, N. Y., July 1 1893. that on and after July I, 1888, the charge from contagious diseases and treated in

The above is in accordance with a contract between the Health Department, city of New York, and the Unifed States' Immigration service, approved at Washington, D. C., June 19, 1822, and Department letter of June 29, 1837, approving the charges for the care of contractions against the proving the charges for the care of contract between the Health Department letter of June 29, 1837, and Department letter of June 29, 1837, approving the charges for the care of contractions disease treated in the housitale.

A bronse tablet bearing the following Port of New York."

U. S. Commissioner of Immigration A bronse tablet bearing the following inscription was placed under one of the windows of the Mayor's office in the City Hall to-day:

"Near this spot, in the presence of Gen. George Washington, the Declaration of Independence was read and published to the American Army, July 9, 1776.

"Erested by the Sons of the Resolu-

WILL WIDER EDGECOMBE ROAD.

Board of Street Openings Decide o

Several Improvements. Commissioner Daly's plan for wide ing Edgecombe road was approved by the Board of Street Openings and Improve-ments to-day. The road will be made eighty feet wide from One Hundred and Seventy-fifth to One Hundred and Fifty

Seventy-fifth to One Hundred and Fiftysifth street, where it will connect with Mavor Gilroy's proposed speedway.
One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street, from the Boulevard to Amsterdam avenuc, was ordered laid out.
Tre matter of closing certain streets on Convent Hill, where the Sacred Heart Academy is located, and extending Convent Terrace, was laid over. The Mayor was in doubt as to whether the change was to be made under the old law or the Elm Street Widening law of 1893. The Corporation Counsel will decide.

issa. The Corporation of laying sewers in and cide. The question of laying sewers in and opening Lowell street, from Third to Rider avenue, and Robbins avenue, from Westchester avenue to Kelly street, and Kelly to St. Joseph street, will be decided at the next meeting.

CONTRACTORS WILL BE PAID.

The Armory Board Passes Upon Number of Claims. The Armory Board held a meeting t the Mayor's office to-day and agreed to pay Contractor P. Gallagher's claim for $36,572.70 for work on the Seventy-first belonging to the Southern Pacific Company.

An opposition ferry line between this city and Oakiand was started a few days ago, and it was the intention of the new Company to dock its steamer at the foot of Broadway, in Oakiand.

The Southern Pacific had held that portion of the water front a number of years and attempted to block out the new Company. The riot resulted from this attempt. A great number of citizens took part in the tearing-up.

Knocked Down by a Truck.

Four-year-old Rosa Schaff, of 445 Marcy areaus, Brooklyn, was knocked down in front of the home to-day by a heavy fruck, owned by Wall & Son's Rope Company. Her arm was fractured and also was badly set about the heat. Thirty Days for His Talk. at 424 East Sixteenth street, was before Jus tice Myan, in the Essex Market Police Court,

AN OMINOUS QUIET IN PARIS.

More Trouble Expected When the Darkness Sets In.

ppeal by Trades Delegates to Sta a General Strike.

origin in a freak of the students in will be one dollar ($1.00) per day for the Latin Quarter have grown and each and every case, and for those spread, and the situation now promises

An appeal signed by the delegates of trades syndicates was issued to-day in Paris and the provinces requesting

The troubles between the Governmen places are still too fresh in the publi eral strike and its attendant disorder ing viewed with any dagree of equa

The tension between the Paris Municipal Council, some of whose members are avowedly Socialists, and the Govern ment shows no signs of lessening. The the situation in the city was discussed. Several members made speeches in which they violently denounced the Gov what was termed their high-banded and eckless disregard of the law. The action of the Council to-day adds ment intends to dissolve that body have been released. PEEKSKILL, N.Y., July 7 .- The Seventy-first the akirmish drill this morning under is Capt. Keck, Company K., and officer of the guard Lieutenant Branders. The general health of the camp continues to be good and there are no cases of sickness in the hospital. men showed up well. The officer of the day the police have been held for prosecu

Drummers to Own Chicago July 26 CHICAGO, July 7.—The commercial travel-lers from the East, West, North and South in Chicago during the week of July 24 to 29, and on July 25 they will parade. Twenty-five thousand knights of the gripsack will own the city on that day. The Chicago Hus-sars will lead the column.

this morning charged with using insulting and abusive language to Josie Dumser, ser-enteen years old, of 659 East Thirteenth atreet. The Court placed him under $300 Bond for thirty days. Pouca Reservation Won't Be Opened Commission has falled to make a treaty with the Ponca Indians, and their reservation will not be spaned at the strip.

CITY FATHERS IN A FINE ROW.

Mayor of Dunkirk Sends a Police man for Absent Councilmen. DUNKINK, N. Y., July 7 .- The adjourne Common Council meeting held Wednesday evening terminated in a most exciting row. The trouble grew out of the consideration of a petition presented by the Lake whore Railond Company last month for permis remove the Bass street overhead bridge. was made to take up the petition Council-men Wirtner, Mechan, Fernandez and Hogan departed from the chamber, and the Council then adjourned for want of a quorum.

July 6 the motion was renewed, put and carried before Hogan, Mechan and Wirtner could leave the room, as they attempted to do. When they had retired the Council was left without a quorum, and the Mayor decided to compet them to return. He directed the clerk to fill out warrants, which were placed in the hands of Officer Hamilin for the arrest of the truants.

search the officer reported he was unable to had any of them. The Council then ad-journed to meet this evening, when another row is looked for. Wirtner threatens to bring suit against the Mayor and Officer Hamilton.

HIS HAND OR HIS MONEY.

This Russian Maid Will Marry or Sue an Alleged Nihilist.

Dina Back, a pretty young Russia girl, of 194 Madison street, is one of the principals in a threatened breach promise suit in which she has a tale to tell of having been induced to come to this country from Russia to marry The man is Hyman Gamer, a cap maker, of this city. He is said to be a Nihilist. According to the girl's story, he fled t this country three years ago, on money furnithed by her. They became acquainted six years ago in the town of Dinaberg, where she was employed as cigarette-maker. After a three years equaintance they became engaged, and Gamer salled for this country to escape olice have been held for prosecu-soldier duty. Dina says she gave him All the other persons arrested about $50 in Russian money to pay his atout $50 in Russian money to pay his pe. sage.

Since he has been in this city Gamer has prospered, and he wrote several letters to his distant sweetheart, teling her to come over and he would marry her. The letters are full of love, and they had such an effect on Dina that she packed up her traps and started three weeks ago.

On her arrival she was coldly received, and instead of marrying her Miss Back says Gamer discarded her. He now absolutely refuses to marry her, but she says that she will either force him to keep his promise or part with some of his savings.

fined $10 in the Tomba Police Court this ening peal of thunder. morning. Last night Policeman Dorsey saw Men and women ran wildly about the him annoying a young woman at Battery streets shouting and gesticulating. The place, and when he chased him holloy drew cyclone struck the town at the southwhile he covered the tough with his revolver. west, among the scattering houses in Mary Gorman, aged seventeen, of 421 West and were thrown to one side.

IOWA TOWNS

Fifty Persons Reported Killed and Two Hundred Injured in Pomeroy.

Many Lives and Much Property Lost at Fonda and at Rogers Lake.

APPALLING

Churches Turned Into Hospitals and Aid Sent by Special Trains.

load of help has made little headway.

HALF THE TOWN RAZED. There was no place to care for the injured, and a church, which was just outside the track of the storm, was turned into a hospital. Here the surgeons worked by the aid of lanterns and lamps. Those with broken bones the stretched upon the long pews, walls others who needed surgical attention on less severe injuries were compelled to stand or lie upon the floor and await their turn.

The dead were laid upon the ground in a vacant lot at the edge of the devastated district. Through the narrow aisles left between the dead bodies the survivors passed looking for lost ones. In the confusion it was impossible to secure a list of the fatalities. All telegraph communication was cut off edge of the town. The storm broke about 7 o'clock. All day long the clouds were scurrying across the sky.

OMINOUS CLOUDS GATHER, An occasional shower would be fol-lowed by a hot burst of sunshine. Jusbefore dark great banks of black clouds massed in the southwest and another in the west. Just before 7 o'clock the two threatening piles moved towards one another and then joined.

The clouds took on a green tint, which was pierced with the sun's rays for a moment. Then darkness set in rapidly. The elements seemed to form about the preeze stirred the tree tops in the street of Pomeroy. Those who were watching the phe-Little Joseph Murray Missing.

Joseph Murray, eight years old, of 410 West like a cloud dropped to the ground and sing since gathered in strength as it advanced to wards the towa.

this morning. On the afternoon of the day he disappeared the boy, after returning from school, went out on the street to play and has not been seen since. He was barefoot.

They recognized it as a cyclone, and gave the alarm. Many sought shelter in cellars and others mounted horses They recognized it as a cyclone, s Fined for Insuiting Women.

Themas Molloy, a Battery Park idler was a destruction. There was a dash of hall, a blinding flash of lightning and a deaf-west, among the scattering houses in the outskirts. Roofs and shingles and sides of buildings were wrenched Mary Gorman, aged seventeen, of 421 West Sixteenth street, was sent to the island by Justice Hogan, in Jefferson Market this morning, for smashing a plate-glass window in the saloon at 150 Kinth avenue last night is wate a cloud of splinters